

Tori Baker PT, DPT, OCS

Bio

Tori graduated from Emory University's Doctor of Physical Therapy program in 2018 and completed an orthopedic residency upon graduation to specialize in orthopedic physical therapy. She has practiced in outpatient orthopedics throughout her career and truly enjoys getting patients back to the activities they love. Outside the clinic, Tori enjoys playing sports, cheering on her favorite teams, and traveling to new places. She loves the Clemson Tigers and St. Louis Cardinals and Blues!

CLINICAL SPECIALTIES

Education

- Clemson University, B.A. Biological Sciences
- Emory University, Doctor of Physical Therapy

Practice

APTA Board-Certified Specialist in Orthopedic Physical Therapy