

Isabelle Porter, OTD, OTR/L

Bio

As someone who has had hand therapy herself in the past, Isabelle knows what it's like to sit on the other side of the table. Her primary goal is to support her patients to participate in activities that are meaningful to them as fully as possible. When she's not working, Isabelle loves to travel, hike, exercise, play pickleball, and spend time with family and friends.

Education

LOCATIONS

- Monroe Physical & Hand Therapy

Wingate University- Occupational Therapy Doctorate

Clemson University,-Recreational Therapy Major, Psychology Minor

Practice

CLINICAL SPECIALTIES

- Specialties

- American Occupational Therapy Association
- American Society of Hand Therapists