

Kelli McLane, MPH, PA-C

Education

- University of Tennessee - B.A. in Psychology
- University of Kentucky - Master of Public Health, Behavioral Health
- Thomas Jefferson University - Master of Physician Assistant Studies
- Orthopaedic Surgery ACP Fellowship - Carilion Clinic, Level 1 Trauma Center

Research

- University of Tennessee Social Psychology Department 2011, 2012
- University of Tennessee Ecology Department 2012

PRESENTATIONS & PROJECTS

- Unique Considerations for Pediatric Fracture Management, October 12th, 2019
  - 2019 CVAOT Fall Conference
- DISH vs. Ankylosing Spondylitis, July 22nd, 2019
  - Roanoke Memorial Hospital, Orthopedic Spine Surgery Department
- Pediatric Orthopedics, July 10th, 2019
  - Radford University Carilion Physician Assistant Program
- Master's Project: Syringomyelia, July, 2018 Thomas Jefferson University, Philadelphia, PA
- UK Master of Public Health Capstone Thesis: Are There Benefits of Smoking Reduction During Pregnancy?
  - Smoking Status of Pregnant Women and the Effect on Pre-Term Delivery
- UK MPH Practicum, May 2013: Medical mission trip to Costa Rica, Nicaragua, and Belize. The trip included medical interventions, direct patient care, community and village triage, and public health interventions.

LOCATIONS

- Hip & Knee Center
- South Park

CLINICAL SPECIALTIES

- Knee