

Rhonda S. Cornwell PT, MPT, OCS

Bio

One of my favorite things to do is meet new patients and learn about their lives and various backgrounds. I also have great appreciation for nature and science of many types. So being outdoors, both exploring and interacting with nature is a lot of fun for me. I also have become quite interested in the study of culture and history.

LOCATIONS

- Lincolnton Physical Therapy
- Shelby Physical Therapy

Education

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill- Master of Physical Therapy

Pennsylvania State University; College of Health and Human Development
- Bachelor of Science: Exercise and Sport Science; Gerontology Option

CLINICAL SPECIALTIES