

Courtney McMahon, PTA

Bio

Courtney graduated from The University of Pittsburgh at Titusville in 2017, working in orthopedic PT since. Through the years she has expanded her continuing education in lymphedema therapy, and other manual techniques. Outside of work, Courtney enjoys hiking and backpacking with her husband, and creating art work. As a provider, Courtney's main goal is to help her patient's feel encouraged, as they work hard to meet their rehab goals.
