

Bill Cerosky, OTR/L, CHT

Bio

Bill received his Bachelors of Science in Occupational Therapy at Utica College of Syracuse University in 1997. He moved to North Carolina from upstate New York in 1997 and completed his clinical with Charlotte Orthopedic Specialists. Upon completion, he was hired as a Hand Therapist Specializing in treatment of outpatient upper extremity injuries of the hand, elbow and shoulder. In 2002, he received his CHT (Certification of Hand Therapy) certification. He keeps his skills current by attending physician led journal clubs, OrthoCarolina symposiums, and other national continuing education classes. Bill has furthered his education by attending continuing education courses, attending physician led journal clubs as well as OrthoCarolina symposiums. Bill is active in his community by coaching youth lacrosse in the Lake Norman area. Bill has taught youth lacrosse in the Lake Norman area since 2008. He is currently his sons select travel lacrosse team head coach

P: 704.323.2809

LOCATIONS

- Huntersville Physical & Hand Therapy

CLINICAL SPECIALTIES

Education

- Utica College of Syracuse University - Bachelors of Science in Occupational Therapy

Practice

- Certified Hand Therapist