

Andrea Gilyard, PT, DPT, OCS, ATC

Bio

Andrea, originally from central Ohio, joined the OrthoCarolina team in the fall of 2014. Andrea's education started at Otterbein College in Westerville, Ohio where she earned her B.S. in Athletic Training. Andrea has maintained her designation as a nationally certified and state licensed Athletic Trainer even though she now spends most of her time in the physical therapy clinic. Andrea continued her education at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio where she earned her Doctor of Physical Therapy degree. Following completion of physical therapy school, Andrea completed the Ohio University/OhioHealth Orthopedic Physical Therapy Residency where she received advanced education regarding evaluation and treatment of orthopedic conditions as well as assisted in teaching orthopedic and manual therapy in a doctoral level physical therapy program. Most recently, Andrea has expanded her knowledge by earning designation as an American Board of Physical Therapy Specialists Board Certified Orthopedic Clinical Specialist.

P: 704.323.2809

LOCATIONS

- Concord Physical & Hand Therapy

CLINICAL SPECIALTIES

Education

- Otterbein College - Bachelor of Science in Athletic Training
- Ohio University - Doctor of Physical Therapy
- Ohio University - Ohio Health Orthopedic Post Graduate Physical Therapy Residency

Practice

- Board Certified Clinical Specialist in Orthopedic Physical Therapy