Second Mooresville location expands practice in North Charlotte area

MOORESVILLE, N.C. (November 10, 2014) – Northshore Orthopedics & Sports Medicine has joined OrthoCarolina, adding a second Mooresville location for the orthopedic group. With the addition of the new office, OrthoCarolina, the most comprehensive orthopedic practice in the region, has more than 144 physicians at 34 locations across North Carolina.

“Mooresville and the Lake Norman region are an important area that continues to grow in population and size. Northshore has expertise and a reputation for excellence, and we’re thrilled to have them on board,” said Dr. Dan Murrey, CEO of OrthoCarolina. “By collaborating and continuing to build our practice in community locations close to home, we are making top-quality, innovative orthopedic care more convenient and easily accessible to our patients.”

Northshore Orthopedics & Sports Medicine Center has four physicians, one physician assistant and two physical therapists that will transition to OrthoCarolina’s existing Mooresville practice, treating general orthopedics needs as well as subspecialties.
