ORTHOPAEDIC SPECIALISTS OF THE CAROLINAS JOINS ORTHOCAROLINA

Region's Leading Orthopedic Group Expands into the Triad While Continuing to Offer Quality, Convenient Care

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (March 4, 2014) – OrthoCarolina, the most comprehensive orthopedic practice in the region, has announced the addition of Orthopaedic Specialists of the Carolinas, with providers in Winston-Salem, Clemmons, Kernersville and King, N.C. The offices will be the first in the Triad area for OrthoCarolina.

“Patient needs are at the heart of every strategic business decision we make because we recognize that it’s important to have top-quality orthopedic care close to home,” said Dr. Dan Murrey, CEO of OrthoCarolina. “It’s exciting for us to have Orthopaedic Specialists of the Carolinas on board as we expand our network of locations and patient base. As a team, we will be committed to making sure that people in the Triad region have access to the best personal orthopedic care in locations convenient to them.”

Orthopaedic Specialists of the Carolinas currently has 20 physicians, 12 physician assistants and three fellows that will become part of the OrthoCarolina team. The OrthoCarolina locations in Winston-Salem, Clemmons, Kernersville and King will treat all types of musculoskeletal conditions and general orthopedics needs as well as subspecialties including sports medicine, shoulder and elbow, arthroscopic surgery, total joint replacement, spine care, hand surgery, foot and ankle and fracture care.

“Collaboration will allow us to bring our patients the latest in progressive technologies, specialties and services,” said Dr. David Janeway, president of Orthopaedic Specialists of the Carolinas. “As part of the Piedmont Triad and Northwest North Carolina communities for over 30 years, we will continue to build on that quality and trust as part of OrthoCarolina.”

With the addition of Orthopaedic Specialists of the Carolinas, expected to be completed by summer 2014, OrthoCarolina will have more than 140 physicians at 33 locations across North Carolina. For more information, visit orthocarolina.com.
